

Little Rock, Ark. Church Safety Seminar

March 2, 2024 (Saturday morning)

FREE ADMISSION

Sponsored by Missionary Baptist Seminary

Jimmy Meeks is a retired Texas police officer and minister. He has conducted over 400 safety seminars at churches across the United States. He played a major role in the production of the award-winning documentary Faith Under Fire, based on a mass shooting at a church in East Texas in 1980. Fifteen of the worshippers were shot: five were killed (the same church where he was married).

Jimmy holds a B.A. in Religion, and has been in the ministry for 50 years. He served as a pastor for over 11 years.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: Pastors, All church staff personnel, church safety teams, first responders, youth and children's workers.

- DATE - March 2, 2024 (Saturday morning)
- TIME - Saturday MORNING - 8:30 A.M. - 12:30 P.M.
- LOCATION: Antioch Missionary Baptist Church - 5300 Stagecoach Rd. Little Rock, AR. 72204
- COST: FREE ADMISSION (please pre-register)

TOPICS COVERED AT CHURCH SAFETY SEMINAR

- Verbal De-Escalation - Learning how to calm someone by your presence and verbal skills
- Recognizing the "clues" that indicate something may be wrong or is about to happen
- What does the team do on Sundays and for all other events?
- Responding to an active attack (assailant with gun, knife, etc)
- How to form a safety team at your church
- Where to station team members during church - and much more

For more info, or to register, go to - www.sheepdogsafetytraining.com Look under the "Seminar Schedule" tab.